嫦娥与中秋节

Chang'e and the Mid-Autumn Festival

The Chinese Mid-Autumn Festival is a very important holiday in Chinese culture. It is on the 15th day of the 8th month on the lunar calendar. It falls in late September or early October on our calendar. This is the day when the moon is the fullest and brightest of the year. This holiday takes place after harvest time in China, so it can be compared to the Thanksgiving holiday.

An old Chinese legend explains that a beauty named Chang'e was married to a master archer, Hou Yi, who saved the world from burning by shooting down nine of the ten blazing suns with his bow and arrows. As a reward, he was given a magic pill that would let him live forever.

One day Chang'e noticed a peculiar glow coming from a corner in her palace. She discovered the magic pill and ate it. She then immediately felt as light as a bird and started to fly in the sky until she reached the moon. She has been considered the Moon Lady ever since.

Because Chang'e is kind and her heart is full of happiness and love, people say that if you look up at the moon on the night of the Mid-Autumn Festival and make a secret wish to Chang'e, she will try her best to make all of your wishes come true.

Chinese people celebrate the Moon Festival together with their family and friends. They eat a special meal that includes round cakes called moon cakes. At night they go outside to look at lantern exhibitions and make a wish to the Moon Lady.

Art Project: Paper Moon 创意手工：纸月亮

Instructions:

1. Give each student a 9" paper plate;
2. Instruct students to write a big Chinese character "月" in the middle of the plate;
3. Color the plate yellow;
4. Punch a hole at the top;
5. Tie a string or a piece of yarn and hang it up as a decoration.

Art Project: Moon Lantern 创意手工：月灯笼

Instructions:

1. Print 4 copies of the lantern template on cardboard paper. Color and cut them to size;
2. Using glue, tape or a stapler, attach the side edge of one lantern face to the next until the fourth lantern face wraps around and attaches to the first (See p. 324);
3. Punch a hole at the top of each lantern face;
4. Thread an 8"-10" piece of yarn through each hole and tie a double knot at end of each string at the hole;
5. Tie the loose ends at the top of the lantern and hang it up.

An Imaginary Trip to China

Today we're going to take an exciting trip to China! China is on the other side of the world, so it takes a really long time to get there. We'll be on the airplane for about 14 hours! So fasten your seatbelts and let's go!

Our plane is going to land in China's capital city, Beijing. While we're there, we'll visit lots of amazing sites. Our first stop will be the Forbidden City, the palace where the emperors of China lived. It's called the Forbidden City because only the emperor, his family, guards and servants were allowed inside. The Forbidden City is huge! It has 9,999 rooms all decorated with red and gold, the lucky colors in Chinese culture. Across from the Forbidden City we'll see Tian'anmen Square, the largest public square in the world! All around the square we can see government buildings and China's bright red flags with yellow stars. The square is a popular place for people to meet, exercise and even fly kites! It's very crowded here. So make sure you stay with me and don't get lost!

Now it's time for lunch. We'll stop at a nearby restaurant and enjoy some delicious dumplings. After lunch, we'll visit the Temple of Heaven. This temple was built as a place for the emperor to go and pray for good weather for crops to grow. Its design is round at the bottom and the top is blue and looks as if it is going up towards the sky. Around the temple is a great park. We'll see hundreds of people playing games, singing, dancing, reading and doing exercises. We may even see some people walking with their pet birds in cages at the park. For dinner tonight we'll go to a famous Peking duck restaurant where we'll enjoy one of Beijing's most special foods. After dinner we'll watch a wonderful Chinese acrobatic show.

Tomorrow we'll take a bus ride to go to China's most famous tourist attraction, the Great Wall of China...

Reading: Confucius, the Great Teacher
读一读：伟大的老师——孔子

大约两千五百年以前，孔子生于鲁国的贵族家庭。当时有很多战乱。于是孔子游历了许多国家，宣扬他的和平思想。他希望统治者能够听从他的建议，把国家治理得更好。孔子死了以后，他的学生收集了他的言论，编成《论语》。孔子是中国历史上最伟大的教育家。他的教育思想深深地影响了中国人的生活和行为。

About 2,500 years ago, Confucius was born in the Chinese state of Lu. He was a son of a noble family. But he grew up in a period of wartime. He traveled to many states in the hope that some rulers would listen to his teachings and help make the country a better place to live. After his death, his students collected his sayings and wrote Lun Yu. Confucius is considered the greatest teacher in Chinese history. His teachings and thoughts have a great influence on the way of life and behavior of Chinese people.

Art Project: Chinese Scroll
创意手工：挂轴

Instructions:

A. Short Scroll:

1. On a piece of 8.5"x11" white paper, write one of the three words (人, 忠, 恕) using a calligraphy brush;
2. Glue it onto a piece of 12"x 18" construction paper;
3. Fold back a 1.5" tab at the top and bottom of the paper;
4. Place one paper tube under each flap and tape the flap in place. Each paper tube is formed by rolling up a piece of 12"x 18" construction paper;
5. Tie a string on two ends of the top tube and hang the scroll up on a wall.

B. Long Scroll:

1. Make a 44" long sheet by taping 4 pieces of 8.5"x11" white paper together end to end;
2. Copy one of the two quotes on p. 102 onto the sheet with a calligraphy brush;
3. Attach the white paper to a background made from 3 sheets of 12"x18" construction paper that are stapled or taped together.
4. Add a paper tube to each end of the construction paper to complete the scroll.
